- (b) benefiting from the particular body corporate's expenditure.
2. The body corporate budget and sinking fund costs have been analysed and the expenditure categorized according to the cause / benefit rationale. Expenses that benefited all lots equally (eg secretarial fees, audit fees, printing, postage and outlays etc) were shared between the lots equally. Expenses that were caused by the size of the lot (for instance – painting and many other sinking fund items) were shared according to the size of the lot. Expenses that benefited only certain lots were shared according to that benefit.

Explanation of the calculation of the interest schedule lot entitlements

27. BOOKING OF COMMON PROPERTY

- 27.1 The Complex Manager may, at its discretion, operate a booking system, to enable Owners or Occupiers to reserve that part of the common property known as the common area for functions from time to time.

Title Reference [50870888]

- 27.2 In operating this booking system the Complex Manager:-
- 27.2.1 must allocate bookings on a "first come, first served" basis;
 - 27.2.2 may, in the case of the clubhouse, require a deposit of $100.00 (or other amount the body corporate committee deems appropriate from time to time) to cover the costs of cleaning and repair of the common property. If in the reasonable opinion of the Complex Manager, the common property has not been adequately cleaned after the function, or that damage has occurred to the common property as a result of the function, then the Complex Manager may withhold the deposit and apply it to such cleaning or repair; and
 - 27.2.3 must comply with the reasonable requirements of the body corporate committee in relation to the management and operation of the booking system, notified to the Complex Manager from time to time.
- 27.3 If an Owner or Occupier has reserved part of the common property, other Owners and Occupiers must not interfere (and must ensure their Invitees do not interfere) with the use of that part of the common property by the Owner or Occupier.

28. RULES RELATING TO COMMON PROPERTY

The body corporate committee may make rules relating to the common property not inconsistent with these by-laws and these rules must be observed by all Owners and Occupiers while they remain in force or unless and until they are repealed by an ordinary resolution of a general meeting of the body corporate.

29. DISPLAY OF BY-LAWS

A copy of these by-laws must be exhibited in a prominent place in any lot which is not occupied by an Owner.

30. SMOKING IN COMMON AREAS PROHIBITED

An Owner, Occupier or Invitee must not engage in or allow smoking in any areas of common property located inside a building (including any part of the common area).

31. RENOVATION OF LOT

The manner and style of any fit out or renovation (including but not limited to the removal, installation or reinstallation of any hard floor (e.g. tiles or timber)) of any lot must have the prior written approval of the body corporate (and if necessary the approval of any relevant authority). The body corporate will be entitled to request copies of all plans and specifications and any report it considers necessary to enable the body corporate to consider a request for its approval and the Owner or Occupier must (at their cost) comply with any request. If the body corporate determines it is necessary to engage a consultant to provide advice in relation to the request, the costs of this consultant must be paid by the Owner or Occupier making the request for the approval of the body corporate.

32. FIRE APPARATUS

No Owner or Occupier is to:-

- 32.1 interfere with fire safety equipment or use it other than for the purpose for which it was installed; or
- 32.2 obstruct any fire exit or means of access to any fire safety equipment.

33. SECURITY

- 33.1 The body corporate may operate a security system (including the installation of locks and other security devices) and make rules and arrangements under which parts of the scheme land are secured against entry by unauthorised persons.

Title Reference [50870888]

- 33.2 To the maximum extent permitted by law the body corporate is not liable for any loss or damage to any person or property due to:-
- 33.2.1 the failure or non operation of the security system; or
 - 33.2.2 the unauthorised entry to any part of the scheme land.
- 33.3 An Owner or Occupier must not disclose to any person any information nor do anything which may in any way adversely affect any security system operated by the body corporate.

34. INSURANCE

If due to the nature of activities undertaken by any Owner or Occupier, the premiums payable under any insurance policy taken out by the body corporate increase, then the Owner of any such lot must pay to the body corporate the amount of increase in the premium(s) resulting from the activities undertaken by the Owner or Occupier.

35. ORIGINAL OWNER PERMITTED TO USE COMMON PROPERTY

Until all lots in the scheme have been developed and sold by the original owner, the original owner has the authority of the body corporate to access the common property for:-

- 35.1 the carrying out of promotional and marketing functions provided all reasonable steps are taken to minimise disturbance to the Owners, Occupiers and Invitees; and
- 35.2 construction purposes. The rights granted to the original owner under this by-law include but are not limited to:-
 - 35.2.1 the right to have construction traffic cross over the common property; and
 - 35.2.2 the right to cause any front entry gates to remain open during working hours to facilitate access.

36. AIR-CONDITIONING UNITS

Each Owner or Occupier must repair and maintain any air-conditioning unit that services the lot so the unit:-

- 36.1 if visible from another lot, the common property or outside the scheme land is kept in a clean and tidy condition;
- 36.2 does not create any noise likely to interfere with the peaceful enjoyment of any person lawfully on another lot or the common property; and
- 36.3 does not produce any leakage likely to interfere with the peaceful enjoyment of a person lawfully on another lot or using the common property.

37. OUTDOOR DRYING FACILITIES

- 37.1 An Owner or Occupier must not, without the body corporate's written approval: -
- 37.1.1 place any outdoor drying facilities including a clothes line, hoist or rack ("drying facilities") on the common property; or
 - 37.1.2 use any drying facilities;
- in such a way as to be visible from another lot, the common property or outside the scheme land.

Title Reference [50870888]37.2 An Owner or Occupier must:-

- 37.2.1 only use drying facilities for the drying of articles and must promptly remove any dry articles and (if possible) retract the drying facilities when not in use: and
- 37.2.2 not change or replace any drying facilities without the body corporate's prior written consent.

If an Owner or Occupier obtains the body corporate's written approval under by-law 37.1 the requirements of this by-law 37.2 will apply in addition to any conditions imposed by the body corporate.

38. EXCLUSIVE USE – CARPARKS AND STORAGE

38.1 The Owner of each lot identified in Schedule E is granted the exclusive use (for the purpose of a carpark and storage) of that part of the common property on the attached sketch plan marked "B".

38.2 Each Owner to whom exclusive use has been granted pursuant to this by-law:-

- 38.2.1 except as set out in by-law 38.2.2 must only use the area for the purpose of parking a registered Vehicle;
- 38.2.2 may use that part (if any) of the area (and only that part) on which a storage cage has been constructed for the storing of items;
- 38.2.3 is responsible for keeping the area in a clean and tidy condition;
- 38.2.4 is responsible for repairing any damage caused to the area by the Owner, its Invitees or its Occupiers; and
- 38.2.5 is not entitled to enclose this area without the written consent of the body corporate.

IMPORTANT NOTE :

This services location diagram discloses the existence of service easements for the purposes of S.66(1)(d) of the BCCM Act and should not be relied upon to excavate, design or construct near services, or for any reason other than the intended purpose. Exact locations and depths of services on site should be obtained from suitably qualified persons prior to undertaking any works.

Services on this plan may be plotted from sources such as engineering design information and may not have been verified after construction by survey.
